Concept of the exhibition:	In 2021, on account of the coronavirus pandemic, the Principality of Liechtenstein celebrated its National Day in all 11 municipalities under the motto: 11 municipalities, 1 country. On the evening of 15 August, Vaduz Castle and ten selected buildings in the municipalities of Liechtenstein were revealed in a new light under impressive, artistic and creative illuminations in blue, red and gold as well as the respective municipal coat of arms. Colourful illuminations were used to set the buildings apart from their surroundings and accentuate details that often go unnoticed under ordinary circumstances. People gathered to enjoy the festive ambience and the multifaceted illuminated settings. From selected vantage points, Silvia Abderhalden and Albert Mennel photographed this “architecture for one night” with long exposures to produce exquisite “illuminated” pictures.
Live-Stream Vernissage:	Tuesday, 14th December, 6 pm Liechtenstein NationalMuseum You are welcomed by Prof. Dr. Rainer Vollkommer, Director of the Liechtenstein National Museum. Jasmin Collini Heidegger, President of the Foundation of Liechtenstein NationalMusuem, gives the opening words. Silvia Abderhalden, exclusive editor, introduces the topic.
